1. & 2. Source: Platinum for Fund returns and RIMES Technologies for MSCI returns. Investment returns are calculated using the Fund's NAV unit price (i.e. exclude a buy/sell spread), and represent the combined income and capital returns in the specified period. All returns are pre-tax, net of fees and costs and assume the reinvestment of distributions. Returns are net of any accrued investment performance fee. The returns are calculated relative to the MSCI All Country World Net Index in A$. The investment returns depicted in the graph are cumulative on A$20,000 invested in the Fund since inception. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future returns. It should be noted that Platinum does not invest by reference to the weightings of the index. Underlying assets are chosen through Platinum's bottom up stock selection process and as a result holdings will vary considerably from the make-up of the index. The index is provided as a reference only.

3. China refers to securities or derivatives over securities, which securities are listed on the Shanghai or Shenzhen stock exchange. China Ex PRC refers to securities or derivatives over securities, which securities are listed outside of the PRC but provide exposure to PRC companies. The "Long %" represents the exposure to direct securities holdings and long stock/index derivatives as a percentage of the Platinum International Fund's ("PIF's") net asset value. The "Net %" represents the exposure to direct securities holdings and both long and short stock/index derivatives as a percentage of PIF's net asset value. The "Currency %" represents the effective currency exposure of PIF's portfolio as a percentage of PIF's net asset value, taking into account currency exposures through securities holdings, cash, forwards and long and short stock/index derivatives.

4. The "Top ten positions" show PIF's top ten long positions as a percentage of PIF's net asset value. Direct securities holdings and long stock derivatives are included. However, short stock derivatives are not included. All data where MSCI is referenced is the property of MSCI. No use or distribution of this data is permitted without the written consent of MSCI.
