MARKET UPDATE AND COMMENTARY

- Over the month the portfolio was down 0.6% while the benchmark index (MSCI AC Asia Ex-Japan) was down 0.2%. Year-to-date the portfolio is up on the index.
- The portfolio is around 94% invested as we are finding many attractive investment opportunities in the region.

Commentary

During March we saw a subtle continuation of the trend from last year where it was the Chinese portion of the portfolio (approximately 50%) that made the most significant contribution to returns. In a quiet month, our two top contributors were travel stocks, with trip.com (China) and Interglobe (India), both doing well. Tech giant TSMC was weak but we believe it remains a stand-out stock on a medium to long-term view.

This China/Rest of Asia divergence in the portfolio can also be seen if we look back over the past quarter and year, with a more considerable performance gap opening up between China and the rest of the region over longer periods. Year to date the average Chinese stock in the portfolio is up about 10%, with platform businesses like Tencent, Alibaba, JD.com and Meituan delivering the largest contributions to returns. Indonesia and Taiwanese holdings have been a drag so far in 2025.

If we look back over twelve months, the average return on our Chinese holdings is north of 30%, while the rest of the portfolio is broadly flat. Eight of the top ten contributors are Chinese, with consumer discretionary, communications and financial stocks dominant. Our Indonesian and South Korean holdings have been the biggest detractors but this has been offset by good outcomes in Taiwan and India, meaning our non-China returns were basically flat.

Tariff talk

Constant talk of tariffs has created uncertainty in markets since President Trump's election. While this understandably plays on investors' minds, the portfolio is strategically more exposed to domestic-led consumption in the Asian region.

On a more positive note, we believe China may add more stimulus to its domestic economy to offset protectionist US policies. If this occurred it might add to Asian momentum as markets have tended to move quickly upwards in response to significant positive policy change. Also of note is further signs of stability in the Chinese property sector. This has been a major cause of investor concern in recent years. As this pressure weakens it may lead to stronger consumer and business demand in China and indeed across the region.

We believe Asian regional earnings are cyclically suppressed and that valuations are not demanding. As a result we are taking full advantage of stock-picking opportunities and the portfolio is close to fully invested.

Portfolio Valuations

The portfolio's aggregate valuation metrics are attractive in an absolute sense and relative to the market, with a 28% higher earnings yield and a 20% discount on a price-to-book basis.

Metric	Platinum Asia Investments Limited	MSCI AC Asia ex-Japan Net Index (A$)
NTM Earnings Yield	10.1% (Price-to-Earnings ratio of 9.9x)	7.9% (Price-to-Earnings ratio of 12.7x)
NTM Dividend Yield	2.8%	2.6%
NTM Enterprise Value-to-Sales	1x	1.8x
LTM Price-to-Book Ratio	1.6x	2x

The valuations in the table have been calculated by Platinum and for the Portfolio refer to the long portion of the portfolio, exclude negative net earnings and use FactSet consensus earnings. MSCI data is sourced from Rimes, FactSet and Platinum. As at 31 March 2025. NTM = next twelve months. LTM = last twelve months.
