Resignation and Appointment of Directors - Platinum Capital Limited (Company or PMC)

Mr Richard Morath has given notice of his resignation from the Board, effective today.

Richard has made an invaluable contribution, serving the Company's shareholders since his appointment to the Board from the time of the company's initial public offering. Richard previously expressed a desire to step down from the Board earlier last year, however, agreed to remain on the Board until the conclusion of the strategic review, which was announced by the Board in April 2024. At the time, it was expected that the review would be concluded within around twelve months. Following the unexpected delays, Richard has advised the Board that he wishes to retire to spend more time with his family. The Board wishes Richard every success and happiness in his retirement.

Joanne Jefferies, PMC's Company Secretary, is appointed to the Board with effect from today's date to fill a casual vacancy.
